A MAKEOVER FOR FCC

FCC now has new paint, a newly landscaped front yard, flowers, a path, and an irrigation system. The Red Bluff Garden Club awarded a grant to FCC for the irrigation system. Noah Williams helped create a flagstone path and put in a lawn and bench for his Eagle Scout project. Finally, paint for the building was donated by Glidden, with Pam Cooper from Home Depot coordinating the donation. The Hope Chest contracted with Sanchez Painting to get the work done.

Thank you to these generous community members for their help to make the place look great!

FCC IN ACTION

We are now conducting a women's group on the psychological challenges of health issues. The group is led by Mary Mosbacher, LMFT, and Beverly Mantych, MFT Associate. The women share their difficulties and discuss strategies for coping. They support each other in their personal struggles with health issues. This group is made possible by community donations and a grant from the Hignell Companies Foundation. Call Mary at 527-6702 for information.
